

Imaginary chain
The one you never break
Seething all alone
Searching another way
Attempt to reclaim
Autonomous zone

Inward through my space
I wander in the waste
A soul to rearrange
The shadow resonates

I am bornless
You can't claim me
I am formless
Void of territory

Conscious act of pain
The self you penetrate
Lust for the unknown
Tearing at your veins
Arriving at the gates
The flesh becomes disowned

Inward through my space
I wander in the waste
A soul to rearrange
The shadow resonates

I am bornless
You can't claim me
I am formless
Void of territory

I am bornless
You can't claim me
I am formless
Void of territory

Bornless
Bornless
Bornless
You can't claim me
