

Welcome to yourself
Kill the image of health
You've been dealt
Like a lie, cloned
Carved in stone
You must disown
Everything
Except your own
Autonomous zone
You are the one
To overthrow
The psychic patrol

Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt

Welcome to the place
In your mind
Like a hard drive
Built by design
With the input
Of your eyes
Transferring lies
To the software
In your head
Unless you realize
You can format
The lines

Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt

We're not trying to protect you
We're not trying to keep you the way you are
We're trying to undo you, undo you, undo you

Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
Welcome to yourself
Burn all the cards that you were dealt
