

Shackled by hate and opulence
Silent
Tearing out the hopes of all men
Silent
Eating the decay of your pain
Silent voices
Rotting out the core of your mind
Silent Voices

Passing out hate and confidence
Like life contracts sign with silence

Signed with silence
Signed with silence
Signed with silence
Signed with silence

Creeping through the space in your veins
Silent Voices
Tying up the tongue in your mouth
Silent Voices

Passing out hate and confidence
Preaching out faith and providence
Forcing out rape and dominance
Like life contracts signed with silence

Signed with silence
Signed with silence
Signed with silence
Signed with silence
