

Emotions Away

4 Strings

The echo of your touch still lingers
Even tho you move on blown and go
As the sun goes down and everything that us
You already captured another heart
Broken mirror, a million reflections
Cutting me down like knives
And its bay me up my heart

Now i know that your heart is just emotions away from here.
Now i see that your touch is just emotions away from me.
Emotions away
Emotions away
Emotions away
Emotions away
