

Darkside

40 Below Summer

Is it worth it?
Or is this all a waste?
The silence of the scream (at the bottom)
Feeling hopeless
And I'm circling the drain
And the heart is slowly leaking
And I don't understand
Why I can't make peace within myself
And I cannot escape the nightmare
And wake up to a life that's on fire

So say hello from the darkside
This part of you that you cannot hide
So say, so say hello from the darkside
The darkside, this is the darkside of you
The darkside of you, the darkside

Draped in mistrust
And steeped in bitter silence
A cost that can't be paid
Constantly reminded
This is out of phase
The clock is ticking away
As you light everything on fire

So say hello from the darkside
This part of you that you cannot hide
So say, so say hello from the darkside
The darkside

Don't sing me another lullaby
Don't tell me that everything's ok
Don't tell me that I'll be fine
As my heart breaks
Don't sing me another lullaby
Don't sing me

So say hello from the darkside
Don't sing me another lullaby
So say hello from the darkside
Don't sing me another lullaby
So say hello from the darkside
Don't sing me another lullaby
So say hello from the darkside
Don't sing me another lullaby
The darkside of you
Don't sing me another lullaby
The darkside of you
