

King Ghidorah

40 Below Summer

The source is unknown
But the purpose is simple
Dominate, conquer, destroy
Everything bends to my will
I am a force of nature
I allow only submission or death
You will bow down
Sire of the new king

Now black out the sun (sun)
This is the new order
You will fall in line or face the enforcer
The old king is dead
And this is the new way
As I have only begun to make you fear my name

I am here to take the world
I will break the world
My will reshape the world

And now it is coming
I am death from above
There is no hesitation
Blood is not enough
I'll sit atop a mountain of bodies built by slaves
Welcome to the kingdom of a billion graves

So bow down and die (die)
There is no disorder
You will learn to obey or face the destroyer
And now we will bring all the giants together
Servitude in this hell and it will burn forever

I am here to take the world
I will break the world
My will reshape the world

And now it is coming
I am death from above
There is no hesitation
Blood is not enough
I'll sit atop a mountain of bodies built by slaves
Welcome to the kingdom of a billion graves

So bow down and die (die)
There is no disorder
You will learn to obey or face the destroyer
And now we will bring all the giants together
Servitude in this hell and it will burn forever

I am here to take the world
I will break the world
My will reshape the world

This is mine
Everything's mine
You are mine

Everything's mine
I am death
I am domination
I am the conqueror this world will be my throne
This is the violent end and a brutal beginning
When I spread my wings it will eclipse the sun

I am here to take the world
