

act viii: i hate to be alone

4batz

That be my heart

If you love me
Why you let go of something so strong?
I'm so alone, I'm so lost without your love
If you love me
Why you always so damn cold?
I'm so alone, I'm so lost without your love

You don't love me no more
I've been trying to let go
Girl, it's hard to not show
That I hate to be alone
You don't love me no more
I've been trying to let go
Girl, it's hard to not show
That I hate to be alone

Baby, my heart
Trembles in dark
I don't know how
You keep running through my thoughts, I hate it
Baby, my heart
Keeps falling apart
This shit feel like
I can't live without my baby girl

You don't love me no more
I've been trying to let go
Girl, it's hard to not show
That I hate to be alone
You don't love me no more
I've been trying to let go
Girl, it's hard to not show
That I hate to be alone
