

Someone's Got 2 Do It

4Lyn

My heart is a very strange place these days. Surrounded by zombies, blackout and cliches
The media wants to keep me trying. But I couldn't care less 'cuz
I know they're lying!

People of the world, dance with me!

I push a peace-sign in the air because someone's got 2 do it!
Care for those who really care about it Someone's got 2 do it! I keep my mind open wide, because someone's got 2 do it!

I pull my hair up to keep me from drowning. I try to compensate my heart's heavy pounding
The media wants to keep me quiet. But I know what they're up to so I start a riot!

People of the world dance with me!

So I cover both my ears. Ain't no progress all these years. They say my thoughts are too complex Because they're scared of what I'm gonna do next!

I throw a fist up high because someone's got 2 do it! Speak for those who really speak about it Someone's got 2 do it! I let my light shine bright because someone's got 2 do it!
And I won't stop aside because Someone's got 2 do it! Someone's got 2 do it and we got 2 do it right!
