

Extraworld

4th Dimension

A million lights being shaded on our lives
Only a dream, but far in time I've seen
An ancient secret lost to man's recall
Spilled the sands of time, there comes release...

A great deceiving, spreading our disease
Born of shadows, veiling truth, watching
Deepest feelings trapped and torn apart
Luminous sparks waiting to be free...

Soul surrender to the eternal flow
Celebration of Becoming
Blooming flowers bathing in the glory
Of the New Dawn...

(Into the ExtraWorld)

Close your eyes, perceive the world inside
Let it be the real thing
White the silence all about, ripe of chance
Leave the past, trust the holy Word
Present calls, just let it be and free your soul...
ExtraWorld, always known
Without time, without space
We'll be free...

Long; s the journey to the golden spring,
Lore supreme, there we shall know perfection
Bringing balance to our wounded lives
Colors we'll shed on our lives...

Roots run deep, we're alive
Make infinite bright, love eternal...

Time has come, rejoice and join the dance
Celebration of Becoming
Grain of sand united on the shores
Of Universe...
