No explainin' the reason
Turn up every season

Wanna be love drunk in feelin's
Which is can't me believin'
Can't me believin'
(Better catch your love light down)

Too much shouts is remainin'
The body let girl resumin'
She wailed me for the taken
(You could be the one right now)

There is no point has to date in
Wish your girls are complainin'
I want keep you awaitin'
Oh oh oh

Your body is on my brain
The picture to my frame
I need to know your name
Not want to shout away
Something that I should take
I need to know your name

So can we talk for a minute, girl I want to know your name
So can we talk for a minute, girl I want to know your name
So can we talk for a minute, girl I want to know your name
