

Telephone Busy

5 Seconds of Summer

(Listen to me)

(You're just uncomfortable)

I'm finding love with the next one
It'll be so good with a good one
I thought it, wrote about it
Crawled up out it, onto the next one
I pulled that tarot card
That one with the mystic heart
A map of treasures
Good things come to those who wait, okay

Okay, okay, okay
It's just not my day
Okay, okay, okay
What you wanna say?
You're just, you're just uncomfortable
Being with somebody who's good for you
She says it's just my nature
And she says it like I'll never change

World is spinning, I'm not dizzy
Call you, but your telephone busy
I've been thinking, "Do you miss me?
Does my memory make you wanna kiss me?"
Oh why, oh why?
Do you wanna kiss me?
Oh why, oh why? (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Do you wanna kiss me?

World is spinning, I'm not dizzy
Call you, but your telephone busy
I been thinking, do you miss me?
Does my memory make you wanna kiss me?
Oh why, oh why?
Do you wanna kiss me?
Oh why, oh why? (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Does my memory make you wanna kiss me?

You're riding round with the top down
I smoke, I drink till you come round
We try to sugarcoat it
Then restoke it, smoke that thing now
Big heart that I tore apart
This one's gonna leave a scar
Already messed it up
So I don't hesitate, okay

Okay, okay, okay
It's just not my day
Okay, okay, okay
What you wanna say?
You're just, you're just uncomfortable
Being with somebody who's good for you
She says it's just my nature
And she says it like I'll never change

World is spinning, I'm not dizzy
Call you, but your telephone busy
I've been thinking, "Do you miss me?
Does my memory make you wanna kiss me?"
Oh why, oh why?
Do you wanna kiss me?
Oh why, oh why? (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Do you wanna kiss me?

World is spinning, I'm not dizzy
Call you, but your telephone busy
I been thinking, do you miss me?
Does my memory make you wanna kiss me?
Oh why, oh why?
Do you wanna kiss me?
Oh why, oh why? (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Does my memory make you wanna kiss me?

I'll never change
I'll never change
I won't ever change
Like I'll never change
I'll never change
I'll never change
I'll never change
I won't ever change

World is spinning, I'm not dizzy
Call you, but your telephone busy
I've been thinking, "Do you miss me?
Does my memory make you wanna kiss me?"
Oh why, oh why?
Do you wanna kiss me?
Oh why, oh why?
Do you wanna kiss me?
