

Alcohol Heart

54-40

Do I still feel all right
Or do I walk on by
How do I recognize a friend
How do I realize
How do I read those eyes
How do I recognize the end

Why am I here why are you over there
At the other end of
I want you to know me only as
What I believe I am
And when I cover up my eyes
I can feel the whole world
I can feel the whole world
