

It's Alright

54-40

I've seen better days and I'll live through these
I don't mind what I don't know
But even so it's a beautiful day
A beautiful day for making love

She can see what everyone else can see
But she wants what no one's thought
I don't know what I can say
What can I say tonight

It's alright, baby it's alright

There's a girl who wants her place in the sun
But cannot bare to leave her shadow
Yellow eyes can tell no lies
And the dress she wears is blue
