

Love Machine

54-40

You say you wanna be you wanna be somewhere else
You don't like that feeling that you're stoned
Thought it as a need just a need and nothing else
But everywhere you look you lost control

It's taken over
It's taken charge this crazy thing
Turning all that fuss into a love machine

Don't you wanna get high
Don't you wanna get high
Don't you wanna be a lover in paradise
Don't you wanna be seen
Don't you wanna believe
Every day is brighter in a love machine

You ever have that day that you wanna run away
Run away from the life that you lead
Then for reason everything becomes okay
Reasons don't matter it seems
