

The Waiting

54-40

I'm walking out with my head in a cloud
I haven't got much faith in you now
The system breaks down, what can I do?
There's no one else here, just me and you

Yeah, and I'm waiting for
You to say that you want it more

I can't help it but I feel the need
(I can't help it but I feel the need)
I get excited and I gotta be
(I get excited and I gotta be)
But for what that could've been
I had my words so, so carefully
So you don't see the hell in front of me

Yeah, and I'm waiting for
You to say that you want it more

Kill the time with fantasy
I don't want control
I tell you what, what I need
You to say that you want something more

Waiting for
You to say that you want it more

I'm walking out with my head in a cloud
I haven't got much faith in you now
What can I do when the system breaks down?
I haven't got much faith
Said I'll wait, wait, waiting for
And I'll wait, wait, waiting for
