Looking down at the water like a seagull
Took a trip at the movies at the regal
And I'm tired of all that noise, can't sleep through Forgot if I told you, but I need you
Put the pieces together like Bionicle
Would you tear my heart out if I had a heart of gold
Or just a part of you
That was level 1
This is level 2
This is deja vu
This is everything you've ever wanted
Cause you're haunted
By good luck and champagne
Jump out the whip like yea mane
Yea mane

All I ever wanted was a Benz and a name
Now I got both and it's still just the same
We was on a boat kinda hard to change lanes
Playing with all this paint yea it's easy to get stains
Cleaner than soap but we still get dirty looks
Big bank rolls all my stacks look like books
Reading hella books
