Tell me something that I don't know
What can I say?
I've got it all figured out in my head
I'm fixin' to die, I can't complain
But it might get worse before it's better again

Well, tell me something that I don't know

I'm going all the way
No accolades but I do as I please
If you take my risk then you take my reward
But you could kill them with the melody!

Well, tell me something that I don't know
Blessed are the billionaires
For they inherited kingdoms
I'm singing coo coo ka-choo
By the skin of my teeth

Well, tell me something that I don't know

They sell us diminishing returns

There is war on both sides

Well, tell me something that I don't Know

This is one of my favorite things
This is one of my favorite things
I swear I'm okay, I just need to walk this off
If you listen, I'll stay
Bring the funk and I'll bring the soul
I've convinced myself we belong upon the train
But I talked the whole way home again and again
