

The Doom Of Her Power

69 Chambers

When her Gods die
She'll breathe her last sigh
It's the doom of her power
A twilight alive
When her temples crumble
All the stars start to tumble
The sky will turn black
As she moves into battle

Do you still want to know why?
Do you still want to cry?

[Chorus:]
Swallow the sun
Swallow the moon
An endless winter will be her doom

It's the axe age
The sword age, wolf age
Before everything goes down
She'll succumb to rage
Nine steps before worlds collide
Across the divide
Nine steps for the longest time
Is it the end or a sign?

Do you still want to know why?
Do you still want to cry?

[Repeat chorus]

Swallow the sun
Swallow the moon
No never again will her scarlet bloom

The doom of her power
Is the moment of truth
There's nothing she can do
The doom of her power
Is the end of her youth
No words for an excuse
As earth reappears with a sunlit blue
Everything becomes new

[Repeat chorus]
