

Thinking About You

69 Chambers

Today I plea guilty
Of killing what could be
Reality comes around violently
I choose rationality, but I
I keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
Can't stop keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
What am I supposed to do?
The odds are against you
Today the vultures came my way
I tell myself that it's okay
I'll fake invulnerability
Just wanna keep my dignity, but I
I keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
Can't stop keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
What am I supposed to do?
The odds are against you
If I turn around
What if I try to turn around
Would you turn your back on me?
I keep thinking about you
Wondering what could I do
Is it just in my head or would you want me too?
Beat the odds to
'cause I
I keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
Can't stop keep thinking about you
I keep thinking about you
What am I supposed to do?
The odds are against you
