You opened up to me, it's okay, baby, don't be shy
There's always something that you wanna, wanna, wanna hide
It's kill or be killed, but I'm knowin' that we will survive
Take the night away from me
Like, take the night away, I'm knowin' that I'll be alone
Like Lady Gaga said "Don't, pick up the phone"
Leave me rotting 'til flesh turns into bone
I just wanna know, what's behind the unknown
Like, take the night away, I'm knowin' that I'll be alone
Like Lady Gaga said "Don't pick up the phone"
Leave me rotting 'til flesh, turns into bone
I just wanna know, what's behind the unknown
