

I was chillin' at my table, use the pencil, tappin'
I just know this bitch, Ashley, she told me what just happened
Sayin' that you love me, but I don't even know who you are
Know me on the internet, 6arelyhuman, yeah, I'ma superstar
Talking 'bout me on the internet, but I'm a crystal gem
Don't be bringing friends around 'cause really, I don't fuck with the m
I don't fuck with them, but I fuck with you
You're so cool, yeah, you kno-kno-kno-

Close your eyes, close your mouth
I just wanna pretend
Already know that you love me and you can't love again
But we're making amends, yeah, we're making amends
I don't wanna hurt your feelings, I know we could be friends

You're a pop star in training
Come and put your lips on my face like a painting
You're my server, don't leave me waiting
I'm such a bad bitch, oh my God, I'm slaying
I'ma bad bitch, and I'm rocking Juicy Couture
Got my paycheck, and I'm 'bout to wreck all the stores
This bitch was basic, oh my God, she got me so bored
Got a facelift, now you think that you can do more
I'm not basic, I'm just a li-li-little whore
Need to face it, take it

Close your eyes, close your mouth
I just wanna pretend
Already know that you love me and you can't love again
But we're making amends, yeah, we're making amends
I don't wanna hurt your feelings, I know we could be friends

Walk, talk, front, cunt
Walk, talk, front, cunt

Know me on the internet, 6arelyhuman, yeah, I'ma superstar
Talking 'bout me on the internet, but I'm a crystal gem
Don't be bringing friends around 'cause really, I don't fuck with the m
I don't fuck with them, but I fuck with you

Close your eyes, close your mouth
I just wanna pretend
Already know that you love me and you can't love again
But we're making amends, yeah, we're making amends
