

I can't keep up with everything
There's something in you I can't explain
The letter awaits under your bed
All I said, I'll never forget

Hey, I'm goin' away
I hope someday you'll figure out what went wrong
Hey, I'm goin' away
You know it's hard for me to go but it's the better way

Tomorrow brings the past away
I hope someday we'll be okay
So dry your tears, look at the bright side
You'll live your life with nothing to hide

Hey, I'm goin' away
I hope someday you'll figure out what went wrong
Hey, I'm goin' away
You know it's hard for me to go but it's the better way

You know it'll be okay
You know it's the better way
You know it'll be okay

Hey, I'm goin' away
I hope someday you'll figure out what went wrong
Hey, I'm goin' away
You know it's hard for me to go but it's the better way

Hey, I'm goin' away
I hope someday you'll figure out what went wrong
Hey, I'm goin' away
You know it's hard for me to go but it's the better way
