

Maybe you see me I'm always happy
But in my back, I'm a lonely clown
Every time I wake up it seems
Your face I want to see in smile

Try to hold me one more time
Bring me back from where I start
Chances are not yet fading but
The clown starts to cry

Hard to say that I really need you
I, I can't pretend that I am still in love with you

Don't get me wrong
'Cause I know you're still here
Don't get me wrong
'Cause I know you still feel me

Hold me tight one more tight
Bring me back from where I start
Chances are not yet fading but
The clown starts to cry

Don't get me wrong
'Cause I know you're still here
Don't get me wrong
'Cause I know you still feel me

Don't get me wrong
'Cause I know you're still here
Don't get me wrong
'Cause I know you still feel me

Maybe you see me I'm always happy
Maybe you see me I'm always happy
Maybe you see me I'm always happy
Maybe you see me I'm always happy
Maybe you see me I'm always happy
Maybe you see me I'm always happy
But in my back I'm a lonely clown
