

Once again united
And yet so far away
Together, we watch this evening
As it slowly turns to day

Our souls are on fire
Burning like a million suns

Why do we collide
Collide into each other
Why do we believe
In a truth we can't unravel

Together, taking chances
To find out what it could be
Is this an illusion
Or a new reality?

Our souls are on fire
Burning like a million suns

Why do we collide
Collide into each other
Why do we believe
In a truth we can't unravel

I can feel you running in my veins
Driving me insane
Nothing seems the same

I can feel you running in my veins
Driving me insane
Help me ease my pain

Why do we collide
Collide into each other
Why do we believe
In a truth we can't unravel

Why do we collide
Collide into each other
Why do we believe
In a truth we can't unravel
