

The 31st of Nevruary
 Is when I turn you down
 The love you got for me so deep
 That I'd like to drown
 Isn't it kind of funny how
 Life done turned this all around
 I said life done turned this around
 Life done turned this around
 I said life done turned this around
 Life done turned this around
 I said life done turned this around
 Life done turned this around
 Life done turned this around
 (For real, check this out)

You don't need to act an ass, bitch, you got a donkey
 Can't recall the night when you wake up and have a coffee
 Loathe doing laundry, but keeping the static off me
 Cover me in compliments, ripping the fabric off me
 Roof on fire, I'm ripping the attic off it
 It's taxing for crack and ripping the addicts off
 Come from having nothing and grew it to having often
 Trying to find a woman to share it and half a coffin
 Damn, I'm coughing, my bad
 Still put light on your path, chill ice on your back, real
 Talked to your friends on-off with your dad lost
 Lost and cold in the black, Dora, you brought me a map
 Can't only be for your fans porn and got you a bag
 Why you gotta use the vibrator that I bought?
 Why you gotta use the body language that I taught? (For real)
 Liking my pics just to show me I'm not blocked, then you signed off

I stared right into the moonlight
 [?] look back at me
 Shining bright in the darkness
 I don't feel the same [?]
 Fall asleep [?]
