

By Any Means

6LACK

Places I been, people I've seen
Remember my whole life, it started with dream
I had to start from the bottom
Full throttle to the top and by any means
I had to let 'em go first, 'cause I know I'm the king

Like to be heard but I hate to be seen
Hurt them 'til they leakin' burgundy bleed
These niggas, they mad, I know that they green
My albums go platinum, I'm not on the scene
Who you know do it like a nigga I could borrow?
Send it to your girl on the low
We ain't with the drama, but we still a threat
Them boys all on go
I done dropped in, I done clocked in, fuck a top ten
I am not them, this is off top, it is not penned
I am not fanned 'til I drop gems
I had learned shit, and I stocked shit
And I really thought I was the hot shit
I was down bad, then I got lit
Saw a lil' window like a cockpit
This the same world, but it's 6LACK's world
It's a 6LACK world, it's a tax world
I done saved up for the AP
But I walked in with the black pearl
Just a young nigga with a gold grill
Can't believe I really made a whole mill
Then a whole mill, then some more mills
And some more mills, skippin' no meals

Places I been, people I've seen
Remember my whole life, it started with dream
I had to start from the bottom
Full throttle to the top and by any means
I had to let 'em go first, 'cause I know I'm the king
