Figured that I could learn a lot on my own so I ran from your love
Young and naive, I saw some devilish things till I ran outta love
Figured that I could learn a lot on my own so I ran from your love
Young and naive, I saw some devilish things till I ran outta love
Figured that I could learn a lot on my own so I ran from your love
Young and naive, I saw some devilish things till I ran outta love
Figured that I could learn a lot on my own so I ran from your love
Young and naive, I saw some devilish things till I ran outta love

I'm really grateful
That I've made the conscious decision to do the harder thing
And do the more uncomfortable thing
In order to understand my purpose here
And I just pray for that to be the formula to my life when things get hard
Or when I feel like giving up
I'm learning how to work with disciplining myself
And it's been quite a journey
But, I like where I'm at right now
