

Free

6LACK

Yeah, yeah

Okay

Why am I waking up out of my sleep thinking of you babe?
You had a hold on me
And now I'm feeling freer than I've ever been You've been around love but you've never been in

Um, babe running out of shit that I can say
Wishing you the best, that's all I pray-ay-ay
I've been waiting for the day
You know it was coming either way
I know that you hate it but I'm freer than I've ever been
Something that you've never been

You had just what you needed to be Everything you wanna be
But you'd rather run round these streets
Now you're feeling freer than you've ever been
But really you feel trapped, no need to pretend

Um, aye running out of shit that I can say
I'm wishing you the best, that's all I pray-ay-ay
I've been waiting for the day
You know it was coming either way
I know that you hate it but I'm freer than I've ever been
Something that you've never been

I know you don't wanna fuck nobody but me
You don't wanna touch nobody but me
Nobody, nobody
You wanna be safe
I'm hoping that you found a way
I'm moving around state to state
I'm living, I know you can't relate
Now I'm feeling freer than I've ever been
And you know I was down, now I'm on the fence

Oh, aye, a lot of bitches wanna ride the wave
Most of them will die to take your place
You done went and give that shit away
I've been waiting for the day
You know it was coming either way
I know that you hate it but I'm freer than I've ever been
Something that you've never been
