

Mean It

6LACK

(You should go)
Mending a broken heart, at least I'm right on the beach
After I heard about all the company you keep (You should've known)
Don't know them bitches by name
Won't even lie
(You should know)
But since you went sealing our fate
You don't get no goodbye

I ain't whoever I held us together
So don't say whatever now
You being selfish
And you should know better
There ain't no forever now
Played your game
Now I feel the flame die out
Now I just wanna know how

How you act so easy
So your ass gon' leave me
Well if you say that better mean it
And you better back that with a reason
Sayin' oh girl before you go
You better know you better know
I don't do no pleading
You can hit the Four Seasons

Look who you made me
Turn into lately
It's hard to not offend
'Cause I need you for the game
Had to be crazy
For thinking you changed
We had a feeling you can't beat
Now we gotta see bout a Plan B

I ain't whoever I held us together
So don't say whatever now
You being selfish
And you should know better
There ain't no forever now
Played your game
Now I feel the flame die out
Now I just wanna know how

How you act so easy
So your ass gon' leave me
Well if you say that better mean it
And you better back that with a reason
You can hit the Four Seasons
