Didn't get a chance to love you like I want
I'm way better
The last time I saw Kay, she knew the way from home
Just got a promotion out at Comfort Zone
The last time I saw Mya, I ain't have the job
Bumped into Katrina, she look better now

Oh, I'm getting so emotional, yeah
Know she like the missionary
The best thing is to let it go, yeah
I told myself it's necessary

And I feel like
I'm missing out on
Things that I've lost

On that night ride home
Know my mind begins to roam
Know they better off alone
Was I right or was I wrong?
Did I take advantage?
Should I get back in?
Only think about them when I'm on that night ride home

On that night ride home
And if I ever see them will they put me on?
Only think about them when I'm on that night ride home

Hi angel, umm, just checking in with you
Just wanted to check in and see
Whether or not, uh, you were feeling like coming through tomorrow?
