

Talkback

6LACK

I think I'ma drive the Lamb' today
I don't get hype off of a like, been a long week
I had to put the 'Gram away
Focus on the shit that matter, go get the bag
Bring it back for yo' family's sake
No more stressin', I know the method
And I'm down to spread the word until my family straight (Yeah)
Aye, okay, aye, okay, okay, okay

Got so many diamonds they like, "Oh, Lord"
Big business plans in my Goyard
Young and still humble tryna hold off
Heard 'em talkin' down
That shit just roll off, that shit just roll off
I feel so top-tier
I hear them talk down, but I do not care
'Cause when it's full circle, know I will not spare
It's been a long road
No, you were not there
No, you will not dare
Let your mouth get that diarrhea
I see you motherfucker and I wouldn't wanna be ya (Wanna be ya)
Aye, hol' up, aye, back, aye, aye

Aye, I just spoke to God on the phone
That ain't cap
He was there
Loud and clear (Loud and clear)
I said, "What's up?"
He talk back
"Don't let yo' enemies throw you off track", aye
No weapon formed, even devilish horns
By the people, I'm sworn
Since the day I was born, motherf-
I ain't gotta say it

Aye, I just spoke to God on the phone and He don't like ugly
Flawed people hate me but the real niggas love me
I'm speakin' yo' mind 'cause I been through Everything every other person been through

I always been the one that my people could vent to
You gotta want it on yo' own, I can't convince you
I stopped makin' excuses and speakin' on things I don't know
You should do the same, that should be yo' one goal

Another million, I'ma need a drum roll
Been through the rain without a poncho
And it ain't all about the hundos
But I'ma use them hundos to buy my block
I'll see you at the top

Aye, I just spoke to God on the phone
That ain't cap
He was there
Loud and clear (Loud and clear)
I said, "What's up?"

He talk back
"Don't let yo' enemies throw you off track", aye
No weapon formed, even devilish horns
By the people, I'm sworn
Since the day I was born, motherf-
I ain't gotta say it, yeah

Me a couple years ago is not me today
That should come as no surprise
I need answers, I go to God
He talk back
