

Worst Luck

6LACK

You tell me get away but you don't mean that, hey-ey
You tell me leave you alone but you don't need that, hey-ey
I'm on my own too honey, I don't need you, look at how grown, h ey-ey
I'm a big girl, I can do it all by myself, all on my own

So why you wanna love me so bad, why you wanna love me so bad?
Haven't you heard about my miserable past, critical past, pitif ul past?
I swear no matter what I touch it breaks, so I no longer wanna see your face, face, face...

I got the worst luck with love, worst luck with love
Or maybe I ain't workin' enough, hurtin' enough
I swear I got the worst luck with love, worst luck with love
Or maybe I ain't workin' enough, hurtin' enough
No, no, no, no... no, no
Why, why, why, why, why, why, why?
Why, why, why, why, why, why, why?

I tell you let it go, but you don't want to, hey-ey
I ask you what the fuck you want, just say I want you, hey-ey
Are you crazy? You could have it all, why settle for me?
You're doing good, you should keep going, don't back-peddle for me

So why you wanna love me so bad, why you wanna love me so bad?
Haven't you heard about my miserable past, critical past, pitif
ul past?
I swear no matter what I touch it breaks, so I no longer wanna
see your face, face, face...

I got the worst luck with love, worst luck with love
Or maybe I ain't workin' enough, hurtin' enough
I swear I got the worst luck with love, worst luck with love
Or maybe I ain't workin' enough, hurtin' enough
No, no, no, no... no, no
