

Alone (Outro)

60

4:25 right now, wake up right before the sun's down
Too high, when will I come down, too much, when will I burn out
My mom's hoping that I pull up this month, never see her son 'round
My OG's never failed me, not once, look at how I turned out
And I don't know why I'm like this, it really don't even make sense
If I was someone who loved me, I'd been ran out of patience
All this time spent alone, days in, it feels like a life wasted
And for what? Just so I'll make it? I don't want this no more, take it

Don't think I can fake it no more
It ain't the same as before
So watch me fold
Just let me go
Became so cold
Leave me alone
Leave me alone

My heart's been froze
Think I'm this close
Turned into stone
Because of you
Lost my halo
Sin 'cause of you
Lost my halo
Sin 'cause of you, ooh, ooh
Ooh
Ooh, ooh
Ooh

Don't think I can fake it no more
It ain't the same as before
So watch me fold
Just let me go
Became so cold
Leave me alone
Leave me alone

Stop that now
You built me up just to let me down
Yeah baby you really stress me out
I think it's best I'm alone for now
Been too depressed I don't leave my house
I try my best let the demons out
I thought it was you I would need for now
There's nothing left I believe in now
There's nothing left, there's nothing left
There's nothing left I believe in now
