

Alright, yeah, remember you would tell me you were all mine
Yeah, that's a hoes greatest lie of all time
You be living in my head, I'm up the whole night
Like that bitch done had that planned ahead the whole time
Fuck it, now I'm on fire
Yeah it's go time, numb inside, it's no life
You were soul snatching, you left me with no life
In the flames but it's praise to the most high

Yeah, yeah, leave me alone, leave me alone
Let me just smoke my dope, pour one more up
Drown in my sorrows, I'll test my luck
Mixing highs with the lows so I stay up
But sometimes I really feel like it just ain't gon' be enough for me
Why would I be picking up your call? You ruined love for me
New bitch say she love me, sorry baby, that's a dub for me
Guess I'll string this shit out while I can and sip my cup of tea
Wonder if that's Gods plan to have you fuck with me
Didn't wanna hurt you, I just needed company
That ain't how that works but I guess now you stuck with me
You gon' end up hurt 'cause it's one sided love with me

Alright, yeah, remember you would tell me you were all mine

In the flames but it's praise to the most high

I really dug myself a whole, energy is low
Scraping from the bottom of the bowl, trynna stay afloat
I just need to be alone, said that shit before
Time and time again to make it known, just to be fasho
Even if I gave you the chance, I just know that you'd still run from me
Can't afford that time, no, not even a couple of weeks
Then again I'm numb to it now, it's nothing to me
Then again I'm numb to it now, it's nothing to me
Wonder if that's Gods plan to have you fuck with me
Didn't wanna hurt you, I just needed company
That ain't how that works but I guess now you stuck with me
