

This anxiety is killing me
And you're really putting me at ease
Don't expect you to know what I mean
Don't expect you to know what I mean
Know the vibes back down
I'm not having a good time right now
I'm not feeling to alive right now
Is it good for you? Decide right now

(Is it good for you? Decide right now)
They say Bo you been gettin' too geeked, pipe down
Don't worry 'bout me, slide out
What makes you think that you could figure mine out?
I'm just like everybody else in that regard
But there's some differences that's puttin' us apart
Everybody lie say they missin' a heart
It ain't true, you think you lost it in the dark
Tell me why I don't even take my own advice
Sometimes I feel like a liar in disguise
Am I even good for you? You decide
Am I even good for you? You decide

This anxiety is killing me
And you're really putting me at ease
Don't expect you to know what I mean
Don't expect you to know what I mean
Know the vibes back down
I'm not having a good time right now
I'm not feeling too alive right now
Is it good for you? Decide right now

This anxiety is killing me
And you're really putting me at ease
Don't expect you to know what I mean
Don't expect you to know what I mean
Know the vibes back down
