

I can't, I'm numb
I'm sick, I'm tired, I'm done
This the last time that I love
I can't take this, I give up
I hope you burn
That's what you deserve
Gave me your curse
So much pain, it hurts

Now you get to see where I come from Yeah, finally can experience what I run from
I finally got one over you, yeah I'm one up
My new bitch give me everything but I'm still stuck
Yeah, I'm still stuck
I'm still up, testing my luck
Still don't know what's best for us
I still don't know what's next for us, damn
It don't even matter what I feel
Because I can't tell if anything is real
I don't know if anything is real
Uh, can't tell if anything's real
It don't even matter what I feel
Because I can't tell if anything is real
I don't know if anything is real
Uh, can't tell if anything's real

I can't, I'm numb
I'm sick, I'm tired, I'm done
This the last time that I love
I can't take this, I give up
I hope you burn
That's what you deserve
Gave me your curse
So much pain, it hurts

I can't, I'm numb
I'm sick, I'm tired, I'm done
This the last time that I love
I can't take this, I give up
I hope you burn
That's what you deserve
Gave me your curse
So much pain, it hurts
