

Dried Out

60

Empty, broken, I feel so lost right now
Tempting, I know I can't, I'm off right now
Heavy, my chest, I can't, I'm all dried out
Can't feel nothing, numbing, I'm all dried out

I hate that I'm back to this, I act foolish, I feel stupid
But I can't be mad through this, 'cause I always do this to myself

Always creatin' my own hell

Fucked it up once again like oh well

Didn't change but expected it to go well

Try to move slow

Too fucked up from this cup, shouldn't drive but I might go ghost

Too much said, shouldn't have sent them texts but I need some closure

Since we ended things I haven't been sober

I would kill for you to call or come over

Even if the time we spend is mediocre

But it never is, and it never was

And it really hurts, everything I touch

Always making me think back to everything it was

Tryna drown out all the pain, I'm always sippin' up

I be drowning in regret like did I give enough?

Feelings burning through my chest about my own disgust

I thought this would be forever, that's what we discussed

Everything that got us here I wish to be undone

Can we go back? 'Cause I can't take it

I just hate it, I can't take it

Can't take it, I hate it

Can't take it

Empty, broken, I feel so lost right now
Tempting, I know I can't, I'm off right now
Heavy, my chest, I can't, I'm all dried out
Can't feel nothing, numbing, I'm all dried out

Empty, broken, I feel so lost right now
Tempting, I know I can't, I'm off right now
Heavy, my chest, I can't, I'm all dried out
Can't feel nothing, numbing, I'm all dried out
