

I can't even sleep at night (night, night, night)
I'm too worried 'bout you dyin' (too worried 'bout you)
I'm too worried 'bout you dyin' (I'm too worried 'bout you)
I'm too worried 'bout you dyin'
Careful what you say, them words hold meaning
You can really change shit like the seasons
Yeah, act like it's nothing to me
Yeah, but that shit everything, yeah

Walking out the dark the light is bright
Wanna go back in 'cause people got me tight
Saying you relate but we just not alike
I be people pleasing people out of spite
Coming at me rude, pretend to be polite
But it's fuck you too and everything you like
To escape the hell, I'm higher than the moon
Like a junkie, when I'm sober it ain't right
You tripping, think attention what excite me?
It's truth in every God damn thing I write
Worried 'bout me changing? Bitch I might
Going up but I'm afraid of heights
I could show you how to waste a life
I ain't telling you to take in my advice
Baby it's a thousand ways to die
I'm just glad that you chose me to be your vice
Glad that you chose me to be your vice
Not telling you to take in my advice
Baby it's a thousand ways to die
I'm just glad that you chose me to be your vice

I can't even sleep at night (night, night, night)
I'm too worried 'bout you dyin' (too worried 'bout you)
I'm too worried 'bout you dyin' (I'm too worried 'bout you)
I'm too worried 'bout you dyin'
Careful what you say, them words hold meaning
You can really change shit like the seasons
Yeah, act like it's nothing to me
Yeah, but that shit everything, yeah
