

Call me crazy, I'm off of hella shit
Self-destructing just for the hell of it
Shawty really played me even though I'm delicate
Every damn time, it's insulting my intelligence
Losin' my mind, what's it matter? I'm irrelevant
At least I look fine, not a soul but I look elegant
Every damn time, I get higher than a pelican
Think I'm burnt out, talkin' every single element

Uh, try my best not to hate life
Guess that I should try my best, appreciate the paid life
I would give it back in like a second, you could take mine
I would give it all to go to heaven but I waste time
Say that that's a hit and that they really love the baseline
I'm sick of A&R's who talkin' strategy on FaceTime
FaceTime, FaceTime, really hate FaceTime
Every time I look at that I think 'bout how I'd waste time
Every night, walk through the dark, I love the breeze
Checkin' my phone just to see if you got love for me
Lost my hope, really thought you'd be enough for me
Who am I joking? I only need your company
