

There ain't nothing wrong with what we doin' though, right?
Shhh, better be quiet, I can see 'em outside
I feel like I could never explain it if I tried
Shhh, better be quiet, pop, remedy, right?
I was always told this shit is heavenly, right?
I'm hoping you right, not ending with lies
Too much time alone, I'm not a regular guy
Temperature, why? I think six is on fire

On my own
Shit ain't always what it seems, oh no, no
It's like five thousand degrees in my soul
Feel like I'm 'bout to deplete, I'm like woah
There ain't nothing left to give, let that be known
No don't try telling me you been here before
You step on my side, this shit can get real cutthroat
I'll pretend it isn't real, just give me one more

There ain't nothing wrong with what we doin' though, right?
Shhh, better be quiet, I can see 'em outside
I feel like I could never explain it if I tried
Shhh, better be quiet, pop, remedy, right?
I was always told this shit is heavenly, right?
I'm hoping you right, not ending with lies
Too much time alone, I'm not a regular guy
