

I was in my bag making sad music, now when I rap they don't take me serious
I cant stand where I'm at, stupid how I feel now and it make me furious Used to believe what I'm doin' but now when I look at the future the shit is mysterious Trying my best to control it but honestly I feel like I'm not the one who be en steering it Nah, I don't fuck with the devil but shit can get dark from the second you s tart getting curious Don't got an idol 'cause shit get demonic the closer you get to the top of t he pyramid
Don't know where I'm going, I wonder if I reached the end of my sentence jus t like it's a period I ain't gon' blame no one else, I just gotta look deeper and see what's insi de the interior

Just a few years ago, I was on top and like everyone 'round me was giving me praise
I ain't gon' lie to you, I done fell off and the only one sticking by me was my baby
At least I can see who is real when it's tough and the people around me that
's finna betray me
Is what it is but I'm honestly bitter about it and I ain't gon' lie, I done changed
I guess I got greedy, this shit all for me and my baby, we taking this shit to the grave
I got a drink and a blunt and I wanna feel good so I wont let this shit go t o waste Am who I am, so if you do not like it then shut the fuck up and stay out of my way
Not saying I'm special or nothing but I guarantee you that we are not one in the same

Sometimes feel like I'm from a whole 'nother planet High like the moon, I just hope that I land it Don't wanna come down because this how I manage Hate how I am, this is not how I planned it Smoke this shit up until I'm goin' manic
I don't wanna think 'bout it, I wanna vanish I'd rather die haven taken some chances I lost my mind, I was tryna expand it
But that didn't work
I ain't gon' lie, that shit hurt
I had to rub it in dirt That's finna be the last time I get burnt Next time, be easy, throw you to the curb Seen that shit coming, no throwing me curves
You tricked me once, don't act like I ain't learn That karma shit's real, you get what you deserve
But that didn't work
