

Baby I can't tell you how I feel, I hate it
This is quite the mess we got right here, I'll say it
This is quite the mess we got right here, I made it
What do you suggest we do from here, I'm lost
We don't seem to understand just how much time cost
I don't think right now's the time to talk 'cause I'm sauced
Body startin' to fail me probably 'cause my mind lost
Time keeps passin' by but I act like the time halts

No pep in my step, I got nothing left, so much to regret, uh, y eah

I don't feel my best, think I need some rest, I just need some rest, oh, yeah

I feel so depressed, gone, tied up and distressed, ahh, what's wrong with my head, ahh, yeah

I am not impressed with myself I confess, I really should asses s my problems

Get too in my head too often

Feel like I'm possessed they talkin'

Really starting to affect how I'm walkin'

Plant one rotten seed and it blossomed

Early drew some lines and I crossed 'em

Devil see the god in me and he offed em'

Walk around and pretend that I feel awesome

Baby but I don't, cloud it, marijuana smoke

Think I lost control, in the dark is the remote

She hear what I wrote, it's an Instagram quote

Light is what I'm 'bout but it's the dark that I promote

No that's not a joke, I really hate the shit I'm on

You look up to me but I just wish that I would fall

Nothing left to see, you wanna talk then you can call

I love it when you leave but then want you back in my arms

Baby I can't tell you how I feel, I hate it

This is quite the mess we got right here, I'll say it
