

NIGHTMARE

60

Shit really been a nightmare for me, nightmare for me, nightmare for me
Remember when you were right there for me, I failed to see why you would leave
The whole time it was right there for me, right there for me, right there for me
Next time choose your type carefully and type carefully

Tight pair of jeans, stuffin' them with racks
It's embarrassing that it came to that
I miss older me, killed him in the past
Lot of enemies, I'm okay with that
It's an evil world, I guarantee you that
Lot of evil girls, now I'm used to that Never mind, a little salt with that
Not my problem, no bitch, I ain't solving that
Not my problem, no bitch, no, It's over
Don't wanna talk to you, not when I'm sober
You made my heart cold, winter in Minnesota
No, don't hit my phone 2 weeks later, it's over
I'm free from your chains and the weight off my shoulders
But still I been thinking 'bout what was left over
Still hit up the range for a shot at my rover
Ignoring my pain 'cause you ain't give me closure
Project ain't done, put that shit in a folder

Shit really been a nightmare for me, nightmare for me, nightmare for me
Remember when you were right there for me, I failed to see why you would leave
The whole time it was right there for me, right there for me, right there for me
Next time choose your type carefully and type carefully

Tread slow, huh
Never mind, do this alone, trying but can't seem to let go
Turn me up in the headphones, finna rock out, no "Death Note"
Phone full of texts, I ain't read those
Everywhere I go is a dead zone
And that's by choice, tryna dodge all the stress but it feels so tense in my neck, woah
Gold in my heart and my lungs full of smoke
Cup full of juice and a blunt gettin' rolled
Couple of things that I wish I was told
When I was young but now I feel old
Life full of choices, hate what I chose
Hearing a voice, don't leave me alone
Tryna stay clean but they want my soul
Tryna run but I don't know where to go

Shit really been a nightmare for me, nightmare for me, nightmare for me

Remember when you were right there for me, I failed to see why you would leave

The whole time it was right there for me, right there for me, right there for me
