

Too much strong, huh, I'm paranoid
Thinking 'bout how we were picture perfect, polaroid
Huh, I'm so annoyed, I'm done, so annoyed
Problems? I avoid, that's what I enjoy
Really bad energy comes with being poster boy
I ain't talking 50, many M's are coming closer boy
Love is what she said to me, I told her she approached a void
Last one drained my energy, I'm sorry love is null and void

What you saying? It don't add up, I had to bag you
Fuck a bitch you know like every time I'm in a bad mood
Really got some nerve to hit me up and give me attitude
And everything you say just don't add up, it isn't factual
In fact, that's laughable, we weren't practical
But you had everything to gain from my capital
Next time just try to keep me sane, keep it causal
Next time, fuck more, feel less, casual
But I know that shawty got her own intentions
She the smoking gun to my heart, Smith and Wesson
Next one getting curved before we talk about connection
Sorry, we were done from the start, no question
If you treat her right, I guess that's natural selection
She gon' take the broken piece of you for her collection
One too many times with this is changing my perception
Starting to feel like reasons for all this in my reflection

Too much strong, huh, I'm paranoid
Thinking 'bout how we were picture perfect, polaroid
Huh, I'm so annoyed, I'm done, so annoyed
Problems? I avoid, that's what I enjoy
Really bad energy comes with being poster boy
I ain't talking 50, many M's are coming closer boy
Love is what she said to me, I told her she approached a void
