

Over Again

60

Move away but demons follow where I run to
She said "Do you love me? Do you need someone to run to?"
See through all your lies some would say that you were just see through
"Some" is not the reason why we're doing things how we do

Calling over again
Falling over again
Falling over again
Not just better as friends
Move away but demons follow where I run to
She said do you love me do you need someone to run to

Yeah oh you hit me when you're all alone
Yeah oh take one I'm jumping off the moon
Baby, you should better
Without you, I was so much better
Shawty cutting lines ain't talking no wait
You can't ride with me ain't holding no weight
This world is yours
This world is ours
So where you at
What you on
Girl what you on
Girl what you on
Light speed yeah I'm going too fast
My b if I left you in the past
Lesson learned I had to get up off my ass
I'm the type to turn my dreams into some racks
You the type to stay mad
I am on a wave yeah
Do more and I say less
(Woah)
I got racks you paid less
Hit you with a stainless
Balenciaga bookbag
You still shop at Payless

Move away but demons follow where I run to
She said "Do you love me? Do you need someone to run to?"
See through all your lies some would say that you were just see through
"Some" is not the reason why we're doing things how we do

Calling over again
Falling over again
Falling over again
Not just better as friends
Move away but demons follow where I run to
She said do you love me do you need someone to run to

Where will I find the truth?
Tired of playing iSpy with you
What did I like in you?
Couldn't get my mind right with
I need you to run to me
Baby yeah I choose ya
To cope roll a new leaf
When I think I'll lose ya

I hope I can find peace, I feel like a loser
As long as your around, please
Don't wanna remove ya
Talkin' down on me oh yeah I'll prove her
Know my Mac is full of hits but no, I'm not a shooter
Baby hope you don't forget what happens when you suit up
As soon you take the suit off, Ima be stuck in the blues, ah

Calling over again
Falling over again
Falling over again
Not just better as friends
Move away but demons follow where I run to
She said do you love me do you need someone to run to

Move away but demons follow where I run to
She said "Do you love me? Do you need someone to run to?"
See through all your lies some would say that you were just see through
