

She ain't for nobody, for the streets, she ran up her mileage
 They gon' run yo wallet, let you bleed, I'm just bein' honest
 I don't feel no more but I be deep heavy in my pockets
 I don't really like the industry, it's only for the profit
 He really a lame but claim he a profit
 SMH, I stand here watching
 I know they got skeletons in they closet
 Makes me sick, I just wanna vomit
 I'll keep quiet and make my deposits
 Feeling the most but I'm staying the calmest
 Keep my mouth shut, I don't like orthodontists
 You finna get what you want, yeah, I promise

I done made a lot of enemies
 I don't play the rules, no penalties
 I don't wanna be a celebrity
 I'm trynna do what's best for me
 But it isn't always so heavenly, like
 You can hear it in the melodies, like
 This is more like a remedy
 I'm trynna throw out all the memories
 That shit way too heavy, I'm trynna keep shit steady
 I just need my feti 'cause I feel so empty
 Think I took too many, startin' to twitch already
 This shit get too messy, nah for real get's deadly
 I pop 3 more like Ed, Edd and Eddy
 It gets tight in my chest
 Might need time to rest, I might die but I'ma resurrect
 Better keep your grass kept, it's snakes in there so you should watch your step
 I been doin' my best, tried to slow down but I be way too stressed
 Feel like I'm possessed, praying for Gods forgiveness I reject
 Might need time to rest, I might die but I'ma resurrect
 Better keep your grass kept, it's snakes in there so you should watch
 your step
 I been doin' my best, tried to slow down but I be way too stressed
 Feel like I'm possessed, praying for Gods forgiveness I reject
