

She's in love with all the benefits, it isn't who I am
Man there's gotta be some more to this, I can't do this again and again
Always end like this, it makes a mess of my head
Body itching, need another, feeling restless again
Know this shit is tempting, but I had to step back, leave me empty, yeah
What was I expecting? All the red flags there, there was plenty, yeah

Now my heart heavy as hell
Dig deep, nothing there, gotta better myself
Think it's clear I'm alone, gotta get up myself
Put a plane on my phone, fuck this bread up myself
Think it's clear as hell that you and I are just not the same
They wanna empty my ass out and put me up on display

Keep me stuck up in frames, shut the fuck up and sing
Really crazy how the industry is done up this way
All I ever asked was love and loyalty, I get pain
All good energy get put out, not receiving the same
We ain't breathing the same, we ain't bleeding the same
And there's one more guarantee, no we ain't eating the same

She's in love with all the benefits, it isn't who I am
Man there's gotta be some more to this, I can't do this again and again
Always end like this, it makes a mess of my head
Body itching, need another, feeling restless again
Know this shit is tempting, but I had to step back, leave me empty, yeah
What was I expecting? All the red flags there, there was plenty, yeah
