

Too Young

60

It looks like you lost another one

Know you can do better so I'ma ride yeah
Keep my shit together easily because I'm not ya
Don't let that weight on your chest babe that was not real love
I know how you felt when you told me that you so done yeah
It won't hurt when you look back and see just how I was
Don't put that on yourself baby I promise you ain't done
And it still ain't feel real in that AM when we wake up
I still think about you, maybe we was just too young, yeah

Yeah just too young yeah
Just too young yeah
Just too young yeah
Just too young
Just too young yeah
Just too young yeah
Just too young yeah
Just too young

Way too toxic
Addicted to you
And I just can't stop it
I see right through you
But goddamn, you've got it
Baby I'm just being honest
This ain't nothing like we promised
This ain't nothing like we promised

Only going sideways
Only going sideways
Baby I'm just being honest
This ain't nothing like we promised
This ain't nothing like we promised

Know you can do better so I'ma ride yeah
Keep my shit together easily because I'm not ya
Don't let that weight on your chest babe that was not real love
I know how you felt when you told me that you so done yeah
It won't hurt when you look back and see just how I was
Don't put that on yourself baby I promise you ain't done
And it still ain't feel real in that AM when we wake up
I still think about you, maybe we was just too young, yeah

Know you can do better so I'ma ride yeah
Keep my shit together easily because I'm not ya
Don't let that weight on your chest babe that was not real love
I know how you felt when you told me that you so done yeah
It won't hurt when you look back and see just how I was
Don't put that on yourself baby I promise you ain't done
And it still ain't feel real in that AM when we wake up
I still think about you, maybe we was just too young, yeah

Just too young yeah
Just too young yeah
Just too young yeah
Just too young
