

Trapped In The Dark

60

Dark, I feel trapped in the dark
Only thing I see a lil' flame from the spark
No heart, just a kid with some heart
Used to feel love then I ripped that apart
That's tough, ain't gon' lie, that's rough
Used to feel love, now I feel so numb
I'm stuck, but no one gives a fuck
Make another hit then I count my bucks, like fuck

What do it even matter?
I ain't feelin' life wonder what comes after
Eliminate emotions, brand new chapter
A couple lil' things that I did not factor in Way too much, where do I begin?
Life turned upside down full of sin
Always fuckin' up like, how do I win?
Time to buckle up, uh, try this again
No time to talk, your account looks slim
Oh is that your bitch? My nuts hit her chin
She give me that "you do it better" look, with the grin
The mouth ain't enough, I'm goin' for a swim
But that don't make me happy like I wish it did
More money more problems, I'm in the abyss
I hate how I feel, but I love blue strips
How I'm trapped in the dark when I'm gettin' this lit?

Dark, I feel trapped in the dark
Only thing I see a lil' flame from the spark
No heart, just a kid with some heart
Used to feel love then I ripped that apart
That's tough, ain't gon' lie, that's rough
Used to feel love, now I feel so numb
I'm stuck, but no one gives a fuck
Make another hit then I count my bucks, like fuck
