

Know I notice everything but you don't think I do
I can see just where you at and I can feel it too
Try to keep a level head, I try to keep it cool
This the last I let a lil bitch play me for a fool
Like, what is it with you
I don't understand just tell me what's in it for you
Gave you all of me, I feel like I been gettin' used
I don't understand just tell me what's in it for you

Gave you my heart, this not what I want
Need it back now, bitch hand it over
Feeling numb now, I'm barely sober
Feeling numb now, I'm barely sober
Stuck here for a minute so I gotta make a move
Bank account is up but all my screws becoming loose
Gotta pick a side it's dark or light I gotta choose
Tell me that I'm great but you feel better when I lose
You've got a lot to prove
Tell me that you love me but feel better when I ooze
Say you don't wanna leave but you gon' leave me with some clues
Late at night it's fuckin' with my head now I'm confused
Left me with some clues
I'm confused
I'm confused, yeah

Know I notice everything but you don't think I do
I can see just where you at and I can feel it too
Try to keep a level head, I try to keep it cool
This the last I let a lil bitch play me for a fool
